

Church law requires that pastors appoint a Financial Advisory Council to assist them in the temporal affairs of the parish. Our parish Council offers advice to the pastor, prepares the budget for the parish and school, evaluates economic trends and offers suggestions for meeting our financial obligations.