

In our Diocese, Pastoral Councils have replaced Parish Councils. In St. Philip Parish the Council is a consultative body which makes recommendations to the pastor, examines and considers all that relates to pastoral work and offers advice so that the life and activity of the People of God conforms to Gospel values. Members of Council offer their time and talents to help keep our parish vibrant and filled with the Holy Spirit.